SUN NATIONAL BANK IS FIRST NJ-BASED BANK TO PROVIDE POGO>® TO SMALL BUSINESS CUSTOMERS

.....

Sun National Bank is expanding its portfolio of technology solutions for small businesses and merchants with Pogo>®, a mobile payment processing solution. Sun is the first New Jersey-based bank to provide this mobile payment solution, in collaboration with First Data, a global leader in electronic commerce and payment processing.

Pogo> is a business-grade solution that enables a merchant to accept credit, signature debit or cash payments anywhere in the United States where the merchant has wireless coverage. Pogo> works by allowing a merchant to combine a web-enabled iOS or Android smartphone or tablet with a mobile application and secure mobile card reader to create a point-of-sale (POS) device.

"Sun National Bank is dedicated to providing our small business owners, entrepreneurs and local merchants with products and services that enable them to grow their businesses and succeed," said Thomas X. Geisel, President and CEO, Sun National Bank. "With the ability to access Pogo> in our growing suite of small business banking services, our customers can leverage the latest technology to securely process payments, more effectively manage their expenses and improve their bottom line."

HEALTHSOUTH VINELAND AND INSPIRA REHAB CARE COMPETE IN NEIGHBORLY SOFTBALL GAME DURING NATIONAL REHABILITATION WEEK

Therapists from HealthSouth Rehabilitation Hospital of Vineland and Inspira Rehab Care went head to head at Cumberland County College in a neighborly softball game as part of National Rehabilitation Week celebrations. Vineland Mayor Ruben Bermudez was be present to throw the first pitch at the game, which was free of charge and open the community.

"Therapists are an important part of our patients' rehabilitation journeys," says Matt Ferro, HealthSouth Vineland director of therapy operations. "Since our therapists work together as a team in our hospitals to provide comprehensive care to our patients, we figured it would be fun to put our teamwork to the test in a game of softball with our friends at Inspira Rehab Care."

National Rehabilitation Week was established in 1976 to create awareness of people with disabilities and promote the benefits of rehabilitation. This campaign also celebrates the therapists and other staff members that help patients reach goals of independence after an injury or debilitating illness.

HILL INTERNATIONAL PROJECT RECOGNIZED WITH BEST PROJECTS AWARD FROM ENR CALIFORNIA

Hill International announced that the construction of the Gold Line Bridge in Arcadia, California has received a Best Projects Award from Engineering News-Record(ENR)California.

The award, which was given in the category of Highways/Bridges (Southern California), will be jointly presented to Hill as program manager and AECOM as designer on December 5, 2013 at ENR California's Best 2013 Projects Awards Event in Long Beach, California.

The $19.8 million Gold Line Bridge is a 584-foot-long cast-in-place post-tensioned concrete bridge, stretching diagonally across the Eastbound I-210 Freeway in Arcadia. The bridge's design was meant to honor the local indigenous people and wildlife of the San Gabriel Valley. The architecturally-rich structure features 25-foot-tall precast basket elements, together with a ribbed exterior girder symbolizing the underbelly of the Western Diamondback rattlesnake.
